Amanda Irwin, Community Mobilization Manager, Centro Legal de la Raza, Beatrice Lee, Executive Director, Diversity in Health Training Institute and Sean Kirkpatrick, Co-Founder and Member, Building Home Together presented a PowerPoint presentation on a Welcoming County Resolution for Alameda County.

The purpose of the Welcoming County Resolution is to

- Affirm that Alameda County is a Welcoming County;
Define and promote the value among all residents of advancing efforts for integrating immigrant and refugee communities, recognizing that a community is strongest when everyone feels welcomed;
- Provide a foundation for bringing immigrants and refugees and the broader community together to develop policies, programs, and initiatives that build welcoming communities, and provide all residents with the knowledge and tools to thrive and fully participate in their communities;
- Support the Building Home Together collaborative in its efforts to engage the entire community in a comprehensive planning process that will examine the issues, challenges and aspirations of Alameda County's foreign born immigrant and refugee communities, examine the systems, structures, resources and programs that support them, and explore new models for effectively serving immigrant, refugee, and newcomers needs.
