1. Call to Order and Introductions – The meeting was called to order at 2:30 PM
2. Review and Approval of the Fiscal Year 2022/2023 Community Corrections Partnership Annual Report – Janene Grigsby
 - a. The Annual Report is a way to tell the state what is being done locally to implement the public safety realignment plan: what has been done over the past year and what the plan is for next year moving forward
 - b. The timeline:
 - i. August 16, 2022 – All submissions were due
 - ii. October 5 – The CCP were to vote on approving the report (no vote was taken due to lack of quorum)
 - iii. October 26 – Today’s joint meeting of the CCP and CCPEC to vote on approving the report
 - iv. November 22 – Submit the report to the Board of Supervisors (BOS) for approval
 - v. December 6 – Submit the report to the Board of State and Community Corrections (BSCC); the report is due to the state by December 15
 - c. The report is broken down into six sections:
 - i. Overview – An overview of Alameda County CCP and CCPEC
 - ii. Fiscal Investments – A review of the fiscal investments over the last year
 - iii. Demographics – A breakdown of Probation demographics

- iv. Recidivism – The recidivism rates in Alameda County
 - v. Partner Agencies – Each of our partner agencies
 - vi. Subcommittees – A report out from each of the CCP subcommittees on what has happened in the past year and what their plans are for the year moving forward
- d. Updates to the Report (since last shared):
- i. Changes to the District Attorney’s section
 - ii. Small grammatical changes
- e. For any updates, questions, or feedback on this year’s report, or to give suggestions for next year’s report, please contact Janene Grigsby at (510) 272-7908 / jagrigrigsby@acgov.org
- f. Everyone was thanked for their time and contribution, to the report, and for their dedication to the community
- g. A joint CCP/CCPEC meeting will likely be implemented next year to allow for a collective review and approval of the report by both bodies at one time
- h. Discussion: Suggested changes to the report from CCP and CCPEC members:
- i. Public Defender’s section – AB 118 is listed as AB 188
 - ii. Public Defender’s section – The Social Worker Program goal and location are not listed
 - iii. Probation Department introductory section – “was allocated” is repeated in same sentence
 - iv. Workforce Development section – Priority #4 on pg. 55 is similar to third bullet on pg. 56
 - v. Pg. 70 – Replace Lori Cox with Andrea Ford
- i. *A motion was made to approve the Fiscal Year 2022/2023 Community Corrections Partnership Annual Report with the modifications as noted; motion seconded; motion passes by unanimous vote
3. Public Comment – No comments
4. Meeting Adjourned at 2:55 PM
