This application is being submitted for consideration by the Community Corrections Partnership Executive Committee (CCPEC) at their meeting on September 15, 2025 1pm.

Please provide a brief description of your organization and the proposed community outreach event:

Finding Má is a documentary and healing-centered project led by Thanh Tran, a formerly incarcerated Amerasian/Vietnamese and Black filmmaker. The film follows Thanh's journey to reconnect with his siblings and search for their unhoused mother after decades of separation caused by incarceration, foster care, and addiction. The story reflects the lives of many Alameda County families impacted by Realignment and systemic injustice.

We are hosting Stories That Heal: An Evening of Film, Art, and Community on Thursday, October 2, 2025, at the Oakland Block Community Hub, from 4–7 PM. This event brings together directly impacted families, reentry organizers, artists, and community members for a cultural fundraiser centered on healing and collective power.

The event features a preview of Finding Má, live music, a custom sneaker art auction, a resource table area, and flash talks from system-impacted leaders. We are requesting $10,000 to support community access and healing-centered programming that aligns with CCPEC's goals.

How much funding are you requesting (request may not exceed $10,000): $10,000

Funding Application Questionnaire

1. What is the purpose of the event?

- a. Foster emotional and intergenerational healing for families impacted by incarceration.
- b. Provide access to culturally relevant reentry resources in a celebratory and affirming space.
- c. Uplift formerly incarcerated artists and advocates through storytelling and performance.
- d. Raise funds and awareness to complete Finding Má, a film deeply aligned with CCP values.

2. Please provide the date and location of the event:

- a. Thursday, October 2, 2025
- b. Oakland Block Community Hub, 1955 Broadway, Suite B, Oakland, CA

3. Who is the target audience of the event?

- a. Formerly incarcerated individuals and their families
- b. Reentry and justice-based organizations
- c. Community artists, youth, and elders
- d. Local funders, movement builders, and public allies

4. What are the expected outcomes of the event?

- a. 150 guests participate in a healing-centered arts and community gathering
- b. 10+ artists and organizers featured (all system-impacted)
- c. Resource tables and information offered by reentry and wellness partners
- d. Increased access to creative and healing pathways for directly impacted community
- e. Completion funding for Finding Má mobilized

5. Will this event offer any of the following opportunities?

- X Prevention – Helps reduce the likelihood of individuals becoming involved with the criminal legal system (e.g., youth engagement, community support, education).
- X Intervention – Supports individuals currently or formerly involved with the criminal legal system (e.g., resource connection, case management, reentry services, peer support).
- X Innovation – Introduces new or creative strategies to support the reentry population and the communities they live in.

6. How does the event support the CCP’s generational health and generational wealth goals?

a. Generational Health:

The event fosters healing and mental wellness by creating a joyful, trauma-informed space for storytelling, art, and food. It offers emotional support through shared experience and highlights the resilience of families navigating incarceration and reentry.

b. Generational Wealth:

We directly compensate formerly incarcerated artists and organizers, highlight creative fair-chance employment and live performances, and connect attendees with entrepreneurship, education, and employment resources.

7. How much will it cost to operate the event?

- a. 10,000

8. Please provide a breakdown of how you plan to spend the AB 109 funding for the event. A budget with dollar amounts for each type of cost, such as staffing, food, outreach materials, space rental, or other needs, should be included.
