I. INTRODUCTIONS

II. REVIEW AND APPROVAL MEETING MINUTES

III. PROGRAM MODEL RECOMMENDATION – WORKGROUP PARTICIPANTS

A. FATHERS SERVICES & RESTORATIVE JUSTICE CIRCLES

1. FATHERHOOD LOGIC MODEL

- a. The allocation for Fathers Services is $250,000
- b. There was a robust conversation around the definition of a father, as well as the resources and support needed for fathers; the group agreed that the definition needs to be expanded to include father figures, non-biological fathers, and non-custodial men engaged in a child's life; there should also be space for sons that need support processing the relationship with their father and fatherhood
- c. There needs to be safe space for men, created or supported, where fathers can express themselves and get the emotional/parental support they need
- d. Services can complement and utilize existing programs like Family Reunification to prevent redundancy in services
- e. There needs to be a reduction of structural barriers: employment, housing, child support; case planning and childcare
- f. Options discussed by the group:
  - i. A One-Stop Shop event held once or twice a year with on-side system wide engagement, barrier removal and connection to existing services
  - ii. System Navigator or Peer Advocate to assist fathers
  - iii. Create or support spaces that help fathers express themselves and receive emotional support

- iv. Use the funding to supplement existing resources with additional services and support for fathers, i.e childcare, housing, etc. – there are a lot of great programs already in the County
2. RESTORATIVE JUSTICE CIRCLES LOGIC MODEL
  - a. The Restorative Justice document was shared with the group
  - b. There is $1 million (M) in funding for Restorative Justice Circles; the Community Corrections Partnership Executive Committee (CCPEC) also recently approved $2 M for a Restorative Justice Restitution Program
  - c. Concerns were raised about Probation participating in the process; the group discussed the possibility of Behavioral Health overseeing the contract; the conversation to be held over for a future meeting
