

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT MONTH

for Justice-Impacted Individuals

Are you currently on probation with the Alameda County Probation Department and looking for employment? September is Workforce Development Month and Five Keys is here to support you! Join us for a series of events and workshops designed to help you build skills, gain confidence, and become more competitive in today's job market.

You must be on AB 109 probation to participate. A referral to the Five Keys Employment Program is strongly recommended. Ask your Deputy Probation Officer (DPO) for a referral if you don't already have one.
